SPEAK A WORD: ORATORICAL COMPETITION

PURPOSE

To provide a challenge to students to excel in public speaking and encourage high standards in speech content, organization, and delivery. Public speaking is one of the greatest fears among Americans. It is proven that if a person learns to speak in public before they learn to fear it, then they will carry the talent with them for the rest of their life. Public speaking is a talent that will propel all professions and walks of life. Through participation in this event, students will learn to demonstrate the simple elegance of persuasive speech without the aid of modern technologies.

EVENT PARTICIPATION

- A. The Oratory competition will be held for the following age group categories:
- 8-10 years old
 - 11-13 years old
 - 14-18 years old
- B. The young men and young ladies will make their presentations in separate rooms, and they will also be judged separately.

Only the top 3 participants for each age category will be called by name to the stage during the awards ceremony.

EVENT RULES AND GUIDELINES

- A. The speech shall be related to the current year's Conference theme. The speech does not have to specifically quote the theme.
- B. Participants may receive help in the preparation of their speech. Since one of the goals of participating in Speech is to learn how to research and write speeches, the amount of adult help should decrease as the student gets older. Review of the speech and suggestions by parents or mentors are parts of the process, but the students should do progressively more work on the speeches as they grow through the program.
- C. Time Limits and Penalties
1. Speeches will be three to six minutes in length for all participants.
 2. Participants going over or under the time limit shall not be cautioned, but will be penalized two points for one to 30 seconds over or under; four points for 31 to 60 seconds over or under; etc.
- D. Identification of Participants
1. Participants shall not be introduced by name or by congregation.
 2. Each participant will draw a number for the position in which he or she will speak. The number drawn shall be his or her identification. The participant's name, home congregation, and geographical origins should not be known to the judges. Any self-identification by the participants, including apparel, shall be penalized three points.
- E. In the case of a tie (for placement only), the individuals with identical scores will be asked to give their speeches again at a separate time. Only the top three students will be called by name to the stage during the awards ceremony.

F. A written copy of the speech does NOT have to be turned in at the time the speech is presented.

JUDGING

A. Judges should be familiar with all the event rules.

B. Each group must provide one judge for every three participants. (If less than three speakers, a minimum of one judge must be provided.) Please register your judges along with your participants.

C. Every attempt shall be made to ensure fairness in evaluating the event.

D. Although there are definite standards of good oratory and clear principles regarding content, organization, and delivery, these are all matters of value judgment as one attempts to score another's performance.

E. Other Guidelines

1. No spectator may enter or leave the audience while a participant is speaking. The audience should be alerted to this rule before the event begins.

3. An interval of at least one minute shall be allowed between participants.

4. The judges shall not be acquainted with any of the participants, if possible.

5. The judges must use the Official Score Sheets furnished.

6. The judges shall be at different locations in the room.

7. Each judge shall render his final decision on all participants without consultation with other judges or any other person.

8. The results of the judges' decisions shall be kept confidential.

9. Judges are asked not to give advice or attempt to coach the participants after the event.
